

HAMILTON ARMY AIRFIELD
RESTORATION ADVISORY BOARD
MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The Departments of the Army and Navy consider RAB membership to be an important responsibility. Duties and responsibilities of RAB members include reviewing and commenting on technical documents and activities associated with the Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) Environmental Restoration Program at Hamilton Army Airfield.

RAB members are expected to be available to other community members and groups to facilitate the exchange of information and/or concerns between the community and the RAB. For continuity, members are encouraged to serve a two-year term and attend all RAB meetings. Participation on the RAB is strictly voluntary; members are not financially compensated.

Priority for RAB membership is given to local residents who are impacted or affected by the cleanup and closure of Hamilton Army Airfield and to those individuals representing groups within the community.

All forms returned to the Public Affairs Officer will be reviewed by the RAB's subcommittee for selection of new members. The subcommittee will recommend new members to the RAB Co-Chairs who will accept or reject the recommendations.
